yabookbridges	5/2/2012	10:02 PM	chat! Must go make lunches for kidlets & read #INSURGENT! Thank you everyone for coming out to chat tonight- motivation is such a powerful tool kelleemoye	5/2/2012	10:02 PM	for any teacher. #rwworkshop @yabookbridges You can do the same thing with their regular books- have them write kelleemoye	5/2/2012	10:00 PM	1 more chapter. Is reading & writing mixed :) #rwworkshop @kelleemoye Oh! I like that one! I need to use picture books more. I love it when I do, yabookbridges	5/2/2012	9:58 PM	I just don't have that many. #rwworkshop @mindi_r #rwworkshop that's the fun part talking with other educators like this on imalwayslearnin	5/2/2012	9:58 PM	twitter, books for pd, conferences, @goodreads... kelleemoye	5/2/2012	9:57 PM	@imalwayslearnin Perfect!!! I am definitely going to ask to get them! Thank you! @mindi_r I force myself to take time FOR myself. Go to library/bookstore or coffee yabookbridges	5/2/2012	9:57 PM	shop w book & computer. #rwworkshop mindi_r	5/2/2012	9:57 PM	@yabookbridges Nanowrimo. My kids loved the challenge. #rwworkshop @yabookbridges One of my favorite writing pieces I do during RW is I have students kelleemoye	5/2/2012	9:57 PM	write a sequel to a picture book. #rwworkshop kelleemoye	5/2/2012	9:57 PM	@mindi_r Get on twitter :) #rwworkshop Last minute question-what was most successful (read most kids completed it) writing yabookbridges	5/2/2012	9:56 PM	piece of your year? #rwworkshop So in the last five minutes, what do you do to motivate YOURSELF to keep mindi_r	5/2/2012	9:55 PM	reading/writing? #rwworkshop imalwayslearnin	5/2/2012	9:54 PM	@kelleemoye they are perfect for middle school and I use for rdg/wtg #rwworkshop kelleemoye	5/2/2012	9:54 PM	@mindi_r Very true. #rwworkshop kelleemoye	5/2/2012	9:54 PM	@imalwayslearnin LOL- awesome! #rwworkshop mindi_r	5/2/2012	9:53 PM	@kelleemoye Korman is brilliant when it comes to so much. #rwworkshop #rwworkshop@kelleemoye also have a favorite for boys: 10 Most Uncontrollable imalwayslearnin	5/2/2012	9:52 PM	functions of the Body http://t.co/OLJoLxd5 kelleemoye	5/2/2012	9:52 PM	@mindi_r Korman is brilliant when it comes to the mini-series isn't he? #rwworkshop kelleemoye 5/2/2012 9:52 PM @yabookbridges Very true! Thanks for the pep talk :) I worry about my babies :) @imalwayslearnin I just sent my work e-mail the website so I can see if I can buy them kelleemoye 5/2/2012 9:50 PM :) What grade are they for? #rwworkshop kelleemoye 5/2/2012 9:48 PM @imalwayslearnin I didn't know about Scholastic's Top 10- thank you! #rwworkshop mindir 5/2/2012 9:48 PM @yabookbridges @kelleemoye There's also Korman's Titanic series. #rwworkshop @kelleemoye You're right. HS will require harder texts but if they have the stamina yabookbridges 5/2/2012 9:48 PM they will be ok to tackle hard stuff. #rwworkshop kelleemoye 5/2/2012 9:48 PM @KateMessner Oh yes, lots of them :) #rwworkshop #rwworkshop I also love the Scholastic top 10 series. So many to choose from and imalwayslearnin 5/2/2012 9:48 PM very appealing too.

KateMessner 5/2/2012 9:47 PM @kelleemoye Don't you have Sharpies in Florida? #WhateverItTakes #rwworkshop @kelleemoye Also, what about Korman's EVEREST or ISLAND series? 3 short books yabookbridges 5/2/2012 9:47 PM that make up one larger story. #rwworkshop @KateMessner But I'm going to try reading a couple of them and book talking them as kelleemoye 5/2/2012 9:46 PM survival- brilliant! #sneakyhistorical #rwworkshop @KateMessner They have the genre sticker on them and the date the story takes kelleemoye 5/2/2012 9:46 PM place :( #rwworkshop @yabookbridges I just know that when they leave middle school they will need to be kelleemoye 5/2/2012 9:45 PM able to tackle tougher texts. #rwworkshop @yabookbridges Definitely! I have boys who have never read a book and have read 20 kelleemoye 5/2/2012 9:45 PM this year- great stuff! #rwworkshop @kelleemoye Maybe you could forget to mention that it's historical & just pitch as KateMessner 5/2/2012 9:45 PM survival stories. :-) #SneakyHistory #rwworkshop mindir 5/2/2012 9:45 PM Hey, everyone! Sorry I've missed the chat. Had to watch daughter's fifth grade kelleemoye 5/2/2012 9:44 PM @KateMessner Oooo- I don't know that one! Thank you :) #rwworkshop @kelleemoye Hmm. Ultimately, even DWK still better than no reading. My boys like yabookbridges 5/2/2012 9:44 PM Draper, Lupica, Horowitz, 39 Clues, Bluford. #rwworkshop @KateMessner I have 2 boys that LOVE that series- haven't been able to get others on kelleemoye 5/2/2012 9:43 PM it yet as they don't like HF. #rwworkshop KateMessner 5/2/2012 9:43 PM @kelleemoye Greg Neri's CHESS RUMBLE is another great one for that kind of reader.

@AmyRass I love all the great discussions I have when I confer w/students. It all starts utalaniz 5/2/2012 9:43 PM w/the right questions. @kelleemoye @yabookbridges #rwworkshop @writeguyjeff also has great resources: Mechanically Inclined, Everyday Editing & 10 Things Every Writer Needs imalwaysearnin 5/2/2012 9:42 PM

@yabookbridges How many days a week did you conference? I've been conferencing twice a week and only get to each/month. #rwworkshop kelleemoye 5/2/2012 9:42 PM

@kelleemoye Have you seen Lauren Tarshis' I SURVIVED series from @scholastic? Huge appeal for lower-level & reluctant readers. #rwworkshop KateMessner 5/2/2012 9:42 PM

@kelleemoye @imalwaysearnin When I had 45 min, goal=conf w each kid once every 2 wks. Doable & seemed often/effective enough. #rwworkshop yabookbridges 5/2/2012 9:42 PM

@imalwaysearnin Would love it! #rwworkshop
 kelleemoye 5/2/2012 9:40 PM

@yabookbridges Mine is mostly boys, though, so I'll have to find some that work for them. #rwworkshop
 kelleemoye 5/2/2012 9:40 PM

@kelleemoye #rwworkshop yes- I have a great form I use I can share if I can figure out how to post.
 imalwaysearnin 5/2/2012 9:40 PM

@yabookbridges I'll have to do more research. I want them to feel confident in reading period when they leave my class. #rwworkshop kelleemoye 5/2/2012 9:38 PM

@AmyRass Hm. I have a lot of Scholastic's Scope magazines. Good idea!
 kelleemoye 5/2/2012 9:38 PM

@imalwaysearnin I've had a much easier time conferencing with my 90 min classes while my 45 min classes are much harder. #rwworkshop
 kelleemoye 5/2/2012 9:37 PM

@kelleemoye What about older "YA"? Zilpha Keatley Snyder had some with pictures but few/far between. Nancy Drew has some pics. #rwworkshop yabookbridges 5/2/2012 9:37 PM

@kelleemoye What about magazines like Upfront? It's NY Times for teens. Colorful and teen-engaging news. #rwworkshop
 AmyRass 5/2/2012 9:37 PM

@AmyRass @kelleemoye #rwworkshop conferencing is the heart of the workshop help set goals about where to go next: on the run is tough.
 imalwaysearnin 5/2/2012 9:36 PM

@AmyRass however, I feel conferencing is a great way to motivate. #rwworkshop
 kelleemoye 5/2/2012 9:35 PM

@AmyRass As this was my first year, I feel like I just can't get a handle on it; @imalwaysearnin @kelleemoye @KellyGToGo Jeff Anderson's new book 10 Things Every Writer... is an awesome resource, too. #rwworkshop
 kelleemoye 5/2/2012 9:35 PM

AmyRass 5/2/2012 9:35 PM

#rwworkshop yes! @KellyGToGo's Write Like This is a great resource.
 imalwaysearnin 5/2/2012 9:34 PM

@kelleemoye Conferencing is the toughest, and, no doubt, the most important. @yabookbridges I can relate. Discipline & management are my biggest issues. Hard to conf when kids are off task and loud. #rwworkshop
 AmyRass 5/2/2012 9:33 PM

@yabookbridges Conferencing, I feel, is something we all are always working on. I think it is the toughest. #rwworkshop kelleemoye 5/2/2012 9:32 PM kelleemoye 5/2/2012 9:31 PM @AmyRass That is what they read primarily. They read GNs and books like Diary of a Wimpy Kid... #rwworkshop yabookbridges 5/2/2012 9:31 PM @AmyRass Have to work on conferencing. In a new school/inner city. Discipline issues abound. Conferencing is hard. #rwworkshop kelleemoye 5/2/2012 9:30 PM @yabookbridges Middle school. We've moved to books with minimal pictures, but they won't leave the pictures behind. #rwworkshop AmyRass 5/2/2012 9:30 PM @kelleemoye Graphic novels might be a good next step. Still pictures but a different kind of literacy skill. #rwworkshop imalwaysearnin 5/2/2012 9:30 PM @kelleemoye #rwworkshop love Katie's work @KellyGToGo power comes from analyzing the texts 4 what we can borrow. Need to read like a writer AmyRass 5/2/2012 9:29 PM @yabookbridges Kids write more when I conference & write sticky note questions, asking for details. Kids respond to questions. #rwworkshop yabookbridges 5/2/2012 9:27 PM @imalwaysearnin Just bought the Mentor Texts book by KG. Can you give me example of a minilesson? #rwworkshop kelleemoye 5/2/2012 9:27 PM My biggest problem this year is that I teach all struggling readers who are finally reading, but all books with pictures... #rwworkshop kelleemoye 5/2/2012 9:26 PM @imalwaysearnin That is one of the things I like about common core is that they mix reading and writing #rwworkshop yabookbridges 5/2/2012 9:24 PM @AmyRass I'm in 8th grade this year. Was in 9th/10th last year. You're w juniors?? yabookbridges 5/2/2012 9:23 PM @AmyRass @kelleemoye @mindi_r How to motivate serial shorties? Kids who don't ever want to write anything longer than 1 page? #rwworkshop kelleemoye 5/2/2012 9:22 PM @yabookbridges Love getting other teachers into the classroom- great idea! kelleemoye 5/2/2012 9:22 PM @AmyRass What are you struggling with during reading workshop? #rwworkshop AmyRass 5/2/2012 9:21 PM @yabookbridges I am much better with the WW than the reading. What grade? Wanna trade? :) #rwworkshop kelleemoye 5/2/2012 9:21 PM @AmyRass If you check out the rwworkshop wiki, there is a link to a video that shows workshop in action. #rwworkshop kelleemoye 5/2/2012 9:20 PM @imalwaysearnin So you use these activities in both writing and reading workshop- interesting! #rwworkshop AmyRass 5/2/2012 9:20 PM @kelleemoye @yabookbridges @mindi_r I need to find & visit other secondary classes that attempt workshop. I haven't found many. #rwworkshop yabookbridges 5/2/2012 9:20 PM Yes, I use student experts. But have also had other teachers (even from diff disciplines) come in as guest experts. @kelleemoye #rwworkshop WW is the thing I struggle with. I'm much better w the reading but I figure it's better than traditional assign-grade-repeat. #rwworkshop

yabookbridges 5/2/2012 9:19 PM kelleemoye 5/2/2012 9:18 PM @yabookbridges Smart! Are your "experts" other students? #rwworkshop @yabookbridges How do you keep students focused on making the best products instead of just on finishing? #rwworkshop

kelleemoye 5/2/2012 9:18 PM Something I use (but not perfected) is editing stations. Kids move around the room for "experts" to help edit targeted items. #rwworkshop

yabookbridges 5/2/2012 9:17 PM kelleemoye 5/2/2012 9:17 PM @yabookbridges @AmyRass I teach reading only, so no WW, only RW. #rwworkshop @yabookbridges @AmyRass I have, unfortunately, never done WW, that is @mindy_'s specialty. #rwworkshop

kelleemoye 5/2/2012 9:16 PM @AmyRass I agree in WW. After the first few pieces, they seem much more interested in finish line. #rwworkshop yabookbridges 5/2/2012 9:14 PM kelleemoye 5/2/2012 9:14 PM @AmyRass I figure that if I can get those boys motivated, the rest of the class will follow. #rwworkshop @imalwayslearnin My kids like movement, too. It's getting them to focus on improving specific skills that they revolt. #rwworkshop

AmyRass 5/2/2012 9:13 PM
kelleemoye 5/2/2012 9:13 PM @AmyRass Yes, boys can be the hardest to motivate, but when I plan my lessons, I plan for these boys #rwworkshop @kelleemoye But once they choose a genre/topic, they tend to work faster b/c they keep each other motivated. #rwworkshop

yabookbridges 5/2/2012 9:13 PM @kelleemoye Friends tend to have similar interests, so more likely to choose something "fun". Sometimes choosing takes longest. #rwworkshop

yabookbridges 5/2/2012 9:12 PM kelleemoye 5/2/2012 9:12 PM @imalwayslearnin How do you use these high motivation things in your daily lessons? #rwworkshop @kelleemoye Haha. Both. Some stubborn, ornery 9 th graders--mostly boys give me gray hairs. Every. Day. #rwworkshop kelleemoye 5/2/2012 9:11 PM @kelleemoye I like to let them choose a partner and then pick from a set list of genres like parodies or TV scripts, etc. #rwworkshop

yabookbridges 5/2/2012 9:11 PM @kelleemoye #rwworkshop my students love graffiti walls, chalk talk and other forms of "conversations" they like the movement too!

imalwayslearnin 5/2/2012 9:10 PM kelleemoye 5/2/2012 9:10 PM @AmyRass In which workshop? #rwworkshop

So, maybe you can help me: I have a hard time keeping kids motivated. So many are all about do the work quickly instead of well. #rwworkshop kelleemoye 5/2/2012 9:09 PM @yabookbridges Can you explain the partner writing more? #rwworkshop yabookbridges	5/2/2012	9:08 PM	I like to let them write with partners on papers to infuse a little excitement when we seem to have hit a slump. #rwworkshop Reading doesn't need as much work as writing to keep kids motivated IMO. yabookbridges	5/2/2012	9:05 PM	Sometimes I use partner projects to get them jazzed. #rwworkshop
